

Building Capacity Summary

- There has been a general discussion about the opportunity to privilege aboard high education
- The research in the region needs visibility
- There is a lack of infrastructure and procurement
- There is a need of a critical mass of the research and scientists to maintain a long term S&T development
- International collaboration will succeed in fulfilling this goals by creating personal relations and common interests